A. Define "spatial distribution". (1)

B. What are the key elements of spatial distribution that geographers use to study the earth and how humans have impacted it? List and define all three. (3)

C. Examine the following two maps to answer the following questions.

1. Name the type of map used to display geographic information on map 1 and map 2. (1)
2. Discuss at least one way these maps show similar distributions. (1)
3. Use two of the three key elements listed in part B to explain the distribution of Hispanics/Latinos in the U.S. using map 2. (2)
4. Geographers ask why objects are distributed as they are across space. Discuss at least one hypothesis that might be drawn in explain this distribution from these maps? (1)