Some great helpers organizing the hundreds of library books that have been returned this week. There are still 243 books checked out so keep them coming!
3rd GRADE TEACHER KATHY SCHELLPEPER is retiring in May! We will miss her and wish her well!

Kathy was born & raised in Lincoln and attended Calvert Elementary! As a senior at UNL, she student taught at Calvert and her first job was at Calvert that eventually turned into a full time teacher job at Calvert. Kathy has been here since 1990!

Kathy and husband, Jeff, been married 38 years; has 2 married sons, Eric and Andrew and two grandsons.

Besides teacher, Kathy has written curriculum for NE Ag in the Classroom; NE Natural Resources Commission, LPS, and Wesleyan University.

Kathy says: I will miss the caring staff and all the friendships. I will also miss the families, students and great exercise I've had climbing to the second floor all these years.

Kathy is looking forward to more time with her husband, kids, and grandsons. She plans to spend more time at the farm, spur-of-the-moment traveling, and reconnecting with friends and door art projects!
